PRINCESS TODAY.

Alice Brady, the charming star, in "The Trap," one of the most surprising and thoroughly delightful pictures which has been seen here in some time. The production was staged in a quaint fisher village, and the scenes on the seashore are among the most beautiful and interesting ever seen on the screen.

Miss Brady appears in the role of Doris Shaw, the daughter of a fanatical fisherman. When the rough fisher lad, who is in love with her, sees her become interested in a stranger, he frames up a trap where-by it appears that she is not only indiscreet but bad, Doris' father casts her from her home.

Circumstances take Doris to the big city and there she experiences a great many adventures, all of which go to make one of the most pleasing and entertaining sort of pictureplay. You'll be sure to enjoy "The Trap."

PRINCESS TOMORROW.

Emily Stevens with a select cast of stars including Earle Fox, Frank Currier, Paul Everton, Rica Allen and Joseph Burke in "Outwitted" a fascinating story of thrills and excitement, interwoven with a captivating romance.

JURY HUNG FOUR TO TWO

In the case of the commonwealth against Theo. Morris, which was tried in Judge Champlin's court yesterday morning, the jury was not able to agree and resulted in a hung jury four to two.

Morris was arrested and tried on an indictment charging breach of the peace and it was sworn out by Sam Fourgurean. It seems that Morris and Fourgurean got into a difficulty while in the field at work and Morris claims that he understood to, and did, take a knife away from Fourgurean and in the scuffle the latter fell on a harrow and hurt himself.

PURELY PERSONALS.

Warden J. B. Chilton came over yesterday from Eddyville to attend the lecture of Lieut. Pat O'Brien.

Mrs. J. D. Thompson has been quite ill for several days, being confined to her bed all the past week.

Miss Hallie Clark has been appointed office deputy by Sheriff J. J. Cliborne. She assumed her duties yesterday morning.

Judge C. H. Bush is in Henderson where he is sitting as special judge in some cases in which the regular judge is disqualified.

Thomas Metcalfe returned Sunday night from Lebanon, Tenn., where he spent several days with friends at Castle Heights Military Academy, which will close this week.

Mr. C. F. Woolfe, on his way from Philadelphia, Pa., to Atlanta, Ga., to take charge of a branch house of the Reney Electric Co., spent last week with his uncle, Mr. John Reed, at the Hille Flats. Mr. Woolfe left for Atlanta Sunday night over the L. & N. R. R.

Orders taken for Victrolas and Records.

AT THE PRINCESS THURSDAY AND FRIDAY.

Did you know that the Kaiser had a poison-filled abscess in his ear, and that if it burst he would be a raving maniac?

Did you know that the Kaiser's left arm is six inches shorter than his right, and that the hand is puny as a child's? And did you know how he carries it in order to disguise the deformity?

Did you know that the Kaiser has a mania for admiring beautiful hands, which greatly embarrasses the ladies of his court? That he wears many bracelets and feminine things, copied from those he admires? That he has 360 full-dress uniforms, that he was twice king, twice a grand duke, 18 times a duke, twice a prince, nine times a count, besides being a bishop?

Did you know why he slaps his right thigh all the time? Of course, you didn't. Few people outside of the imperial circle know them. They are secrets as carefully guarded as has been the proof that Germany planned and started the war.

All these things and many more in the private life of the Jackal of Europe, who has plunged the whole world into war and sorrow, are shown in "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin." To miss it is to miss the most illuminating expose of this enemy of mankind.

DEATH AT HOSPITAL.

Mrs. Millard Frowell, of Crittenden county, died at the Western State Hospital Sunday night of exhaustion from depression insanity, aged 56 years. She had been in the institution about twenty months. The remains were shipped to Marion yesterday.
